TAKE 'EM OVER

Perhaps by the time this paper reaches readers the Federal government will take over the railroads' coal mines. It seems to us that the only way to get the coal miners at work now and they are intent on strike stated at the end of the present work period. At any rate, if they walk out again, the government ought to take over and run the mines itself. If Mr. Truman is correct in his forecast that the present strike will be the most important threat, if Mr. Christopher
